Robinson & Lawing, LLP Welcomes John L. Barber

November 16, 2009 (Winston-Salem, N.C.) – Robinson & Lawing, LLP is pleased to announce that John L. Barber has joined the firm as a partner. During his 37 years of legal practice, John has represented businesses of all sizes – from start-up companies to mature private and public companies. He advises clients on all types of businesses transactions, including mergers and acquisitions and disputes among business owners. After attending college at the University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, John completed law school at Wake Forest University School of Law, where he was an editor of the law review. John previously worked in both large and small law firms, as well as serving as general counsel of Krispy Kreme Doughnut Corporation. John has published numerous articles on business and corporate law and franchising, and he has presented several continuing legal education courses on franchising.

Outside of his legal practice, John has served the Winston-Salem community on the boards of the Salvation Army, the Salvation Army Boys Club, Samaritan Ministries, and the Forsyth Prison Chaplaincy. John also has served on the personnel and nominating committees and has been a deacon at First Presbyterian Church. John and his wife, Merry, reside in Winston-Salem.

Robinson & Lawing, LLP was founded in 1992 by a group of senior litigation attorneys with significant experience practicing in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Firm's 20 attorneys offer comprehensive legal services to individual and business clients throughout North Carolina.
