Michael Robinson Elected to State Bar Council

December 17, 2009 (Winston-Salem, N.C.) – Michael L. Robinson, a managing partner at Robinson & Lawing, LLP in Winston-Salem, has been elected to a three year term to represent the 21st Judicial District (Forsyth County) on the North Carolina State Bar Council. The North Carolina State Bar is the agency of state government responsible for regulation of the more than 20,000 lawyers licensed to practice law in North Carolina. The State Bar is governed by its four officers and the 62 lawyer State Bar Council, a group whose members are elected by lawyers in their home communities. In addition to handling disciplinary issues, the Bar Council coordinates a number of programs for attorneys facing personal issues and problems. Attorneys from the state's largest cities to the smallest mountain and coastal areas comprise the Bar Council and work to regulate the large legal community of North Carolina. He has practiced civil and business litigation in Winston-Salem for 29 years.

Robinson & Lawing, LLP was founded in 1992 by a group of senior litigation attorneys with significant experience practicing in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Firm's 20 attorneys offer comprehensive legal services to individual and business clients throughout North Carolina.
