Workers' Compensation Team Members Active in State Bar Organizations

April 20, 2010 (Winston-Salem, N.C.) – In recent months, several members of the workers' compensation team at Robinson & Lawing, LLP have been committed to various community, charitable, and professional activities.

Jane Jackson presented two seminars on advanced workers' compensation topics earlier this year. In February 2010, she presented a paper as part of a panel discussion on "suitable employment" at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section. One month later, Jane and Mark Peck, presented a seminar on the future of workers' compensation to the North Carolina Association of Self Insurers.

Jolinda Babcock serves on the Board of Directors of Kids' Chance of North Carolina, an organization that provides educational scholarships to the children of North Carolina workers who have been catastrophically or fatally injured in work-related accidents. Each year, the organization sponsors a silent auction and golf tournament, and it also receives funding through donations from individuals, groups, and other organizations.

Mark Peck was recently elected by the NCBA Workers' Compensation Section to serve as treasurer. Mark continues to develop and present seminars to employers and carriers throughout the state, and he has recently presented on the topic of independent medical evaluations under the Workers' Compensation Act.

Eleasa Allen coordinated the Firm's participation in the Ronald McDonald House of North Carolina's "Sport a Shirt, Share a Night" campaign. This statewide casual day raises funds for the Ronald McDonald Houses throughout North Carolina and helps provide hospitable, low-cost accommodations to families with children in the hospital.

Scott Adams served as the co-chair of the Greensboro location for the statewide 4ALL Service Day sponsored by the North Carolina Bar Association. Scott helped assemble a team of more than 100 attorneys, paralegals, and law students who donated their time to answer more than 2,400 questions from residents of the Piedmont Triad. This signature service initiative of the NCBA has provided no-cost legal help to thousands since its inception in 2008.

Robinson & Lawing, LLP was founded in 1992 by a group of senior litigation attorneys with significant experience practicing in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Firm's 20 attorneys offer comprehensive legal services to individual and business clients throughout North Carolina.
