Robinson & Lawing, LLP Sponsors Christmas Service Activities

January 2, 2009 (Winston-Salem, N.C.) – This holiday season, Robinson & Lawing, LLP again sponsored a toy drive and canned food collection to benefit the Salvation Army of Winston-Salem. Co-managing partner Jane Jackson said, “There has never been a time in recent memory when the need for giving during the holiday season was greater. The staff and attorneys of our Firm have again impressed us with their generosity and eagerness to help others in the community.”

In the past, the Firm has focused on collecting stuffed animals, but this year, the toy drive was expanded to include all varieties of toys and gifts for children. The Firm donated the toys to the Salvation Army, which annually interviews families in need and allows them to select toys for their children. This service provides Christmas gifts to children of families who need assistance in these economic times.

Robinson & Lawing, LLP was founded in 1992 by a group of senior litigation attorneys with significant experience practicing in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Firm’s 19 attorneys offer comprehensive legal services to individual and business clients throughout North Carolina.
